Managing Drought Risk on the Ranch

Saturday, January 21, 2012
9:00 am to 5:00 pm

Flint Hills Christian Church
Harvest House Meeting Room
1836 E US Highway 50
Emporia, Kansas

Topics Include:
• 2012 Climate Outlook
• Range Conditions & Ranch Management
• Stocking Rates
• How to Write a Ranch Plan
• Financial Impacts
• Family Stress
• Forage Management
• Pasture Insurance

The Kansas Grazing Lands Coalition, Inc. is partnering with the Kansas Grazers Association to bring "Managing Drought Risk on the Ranch," a one-day workshop hosted by the National Drought Mitigation Center (NDMC) at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Speakers will include Barry Dunn, SDSU; Jerry Volesky, UNL; Ted Alexander, rancher; David Kraft, NRCS; Dwayne Rice, NRCS; Amy Roeder, USDA-RMA; Charles Griffin, KSU; and Mary Knapp, Kansas State Climatologist.

To Register: Please visit http://www.kglc.org/ for information and a printable mail-in registration form. For more information or questions call Mary Howell, Kansas Graziers Association @ 785-562-8726.

Visit the Ranch Planning site at: www.drought.unl.edu/ranchplan