

Managing Drought Risk on the Ranch

Monday
September 24, 2012
8:00 am to noon

$20 registration
($10 for second registration per family or ranch; $5 for students)

Continental breakfast and lunch provided
Program begins at 8:30 am

Northwest College
DeWitt Student Center
Powell, WY

Topics Include:

- Range and Forage Management
- Financial Decisions During Drought
- How to Write a Ranch Drought Plan
- Real-life Ranch Plan Examples

Northwest College Ag Department and the National Drought Mitigation Center will present "Managing Drought Risk on the Ranch," a half-day workshop on planning for drought, working with both financial and natural resources.

Speakers will include Harlan Hughes, Livestock Economist; Emily Kachergis, Range Ecologist; Lynn Myers, Rancher; JD Radakovich, Rancher; Jerry Volesky, Extension Range and Forage Specialist; and Tonya Haigh, National Drought Mitigation Center Researcher.

To Register: visit <http://northwestcollege.edu/ctd> or call Stacy Gilman at 307-754-6062

Visit the Ranch Planning site at:
www.drought.unl.edu/ranchplan

